

TWENTY-TWO FIREMEN CATCH ONE. The student fireman in the rope basket leaped from the second floor of the Philadelphia Fire Department's school at Seventh and Norris streets; during an exhibition yesterday.

ANOTHER POSE OF BOSTON MODEL. Pauline Virginia Clark, who died following a party given by herself. The photograph was made two weeks ago.

CAN YOU RECALL THIS BIT OF OLD PHILADELPHIA?

THE LEBANON INN. Etching shows the northeast corner of Tenth and South streets, where famous inn was located. The photograph was made twenty-five years ago, after business was suspended. A tablet marking the site of the inn is placed in the store and dwelling property now on that corner. Mrs. Walter James, 280 South Ninth street, contributed the photograph. If you have any old-Philadelphia view, send it to the EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER.

BISHOP BERRY PRESIDING. The 135th annual session of the Philadelphia Methodist Conference is in progress at the Wharton Memorial Church, West Philadelphia.

"JUNIOR DIPLOMATS." They are children of Dr. Rafael H. Elizalde, Minister from Ecuador to the United States. Wide World

SPINNING YARNS OF THE SEA. Jack Diamond, who spent many a day in the U. S. Navy, and now lives at the U. S. Naval Home, chats with Ralph Bruner and Jack Bruner.

GETS A FEW LESSONS ON THE MOVIE CAMERA. Miss Evelyn Gosnell, the actress, caught as she studied aboard the S. S. Fort Hamilton, arriving from Bermuda. Underwood & Underwood

TRAINING FOR WOMEN'S OLYMPIC GAMES. Miss May Birchenough, of England, gets ready for the event. Wide World

200 YEAR-OLD TREE on grounds of U. S. Naval Home. Two tons of cement protect elm.

MISS MABEL WITHEE. Her costumes and jewels are attracting much attention in New York's theatrical circles.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

CHARLES LYNCH, 1818 Montgomery avenue, brazing and hardening motorcycle parts in the repair department of the Broadway Cycle Company, 527 Market street.

STRONG BOY OF SWARTHMORE PREPARATORY SCHOOL. Leon Hagopian plays basketball and football, is a wrestler and does excellent shot-put work.

DR. HERBERT J. TILY talks of music in industry in Editorial Page interview.

CUNNINGHAM PIANO COMPANY EMPLOYEES SERVE AS LIMPICK JURY. Reading from left to right, Viola Pressler, Rose Crescenzo, Florence Stager, Kate Middleman, Loretta Murray, Philomena Soden, Tessie Zerillo, Rose Joyce, Lily Hale and Gertrude Eagle.

SIR HALL CAINE, whose latest novel, "The Master of Man," begins Saturday in the EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER. E. V. Co.

HENRY GORDON, bookkeeper of the Quaker City National Bank, 721 Chestnut street. He lives in Frankford. Baseball is his hobby.